CHALLENGES OF MANUAL REDACTION: A PRIVACY PROFESSIONAL'S NIGHTMARE

Data Protection Officers (DPOs) and Data Privacy Professionals often find themselves facing a multitude of challenges when it comes to manual redaction. Hours of painstaking work, the risk of missing sensitive data, and inconsistent redaction are just a few of the issues they encounter. Manual redaction fails to keep up with the dynamic landscape of global data protection legislation.

1 GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation)

GDPR mandates the protection of personal data. Manual redaction often struggles to meet the stringent requirements, leaving organizations exposed to penalties.

2 CCPA (California Consumer Privacy Act)

CCPA enforces strict regulations on the protection of consumers' personal data. Manual redaction often results in non-compliance due to human error.

3 HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act)

HIPAA sets high standards for the protection of healthcare data. Manual redaction leaves room for mistakes, compromising the privacy of patients.

4 Freedom of Information Acts

These FOI acts typically have provisions that require government agencies or public authorities to carefully review requested documents and redact sensitive information to balance transparency with privacy, security, and confidentiality concerns. The manual redaction process is inefficient and can result in delays in responding to FOI requests.
